(Note: If you do not allow access to your home you could be putting yourself and your household and neighbours at risk and the council, Crest and/or the management company may take legal action to gain access to your home and you may have to pay the costs. You may also be prosecuted for obstruction. The council recommends that you ask for identification of any person seeking to enter your home who claims they are from the council, Crest and/or the management company or their agents).
